
This project is funded by the European Union

On the 9th of June 2017 the final conference summarizing ERASMUS+ Project “International Partnership for Improving the Quality of Teaching in Vocational Schools” in Lomza, Poland, location: Park Przemysłowy, ul. Sikorskiego 166 has been hold.

Pawel Drożyner, the headmaster of ZSEiO Nr 6 in Lomza, project leader Malgorzata Rogalska has welcomed the quests and opened the conference.

Lecture opening the conference was „Is science necessary for humanists?” by Romuald Kotowski, PWSiP in Lomza.

Presentation of achieved project results 1, 2, 3, 4 has been done in the frames of the conference by Polish, Lithuanian and Latvian partners (Katarzyna Zajac-Malinowska, Grzegorz Orłowski, Irena Sinkevič, Alexander Klimov).

Demonstration of the tool (MOODLE platform) using the method and training courses has been shown by the Polish project team and school students.

The lecture by Andrzej Sawicki, PWSiP in Lomza about „Multimedia in ICT” has been presented.

The lecture by Aneta Wiktorzak, PWSiP in Lomza „An example of e-contest with the use of MOODLE” has been presented.

Handing in certificates to the ZSEiO teachers and students implementing the project have been done.

Summary of the whole project and the main assumptions and aims of the project has been analysed by the project coordinator Małgorzata Rogalska.

Project result is available at <http://ekonomik-lomza.moodle.org.pl>

This publication has been implemented with the financial support of the European Commission under the Erasmus+ program.

International Partnership for Improving the Quality of Teaching in Vocational Schools

Project number: 2014-1-PL01-KA202-003372